- 6) Material changes to the Form of Ownership of the Developer: Brookfield Homes Corporation (“Brookfield”) acquired Lennar Corporation’s interest in Passwaters Farm LLC (the “Developer”). The Developer was initially owned equally by Brookfield Washington, LLC (a 90% owned subsidiary of Brookfield Homes Holdings, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Brookfield) and U.S. Home Corporation (a wholly-owned subsidiary of Lennar Corporation) (“Lennar”). Lennar had been acting as the managing member of the Developer. Lennar sold all of its interest in the Developer to Bridgeville AA, LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of Brookfield Washington, LLC (the “Brookfield Subsidiary”). After giving effect to such acquisition, the Brookfield Subsidiary and Brookfield each own 50% ownership interest in the Developer. Information on Brookfield is available on page 33 of the Limited Offering Memorandum.
- 7) Legislative, Administrative or Judicial Challenges: There have been no legislative, administrative, or judicial challenges to the construction of the improvements within the district or the validity of the duly recorded plat or other public approvals for any section of the development within the district.
- 8) Material Amendment to the Development Agreement: There have been no material amendments to the Development Agreement.
- 9) Notice of Default: The developer has not received formal written notice and is not aware of any default under the Public Works Agreement or the Acquisition Agreement.
- 10) Significant Events: The developer has not obtained actual knowledge of the occurrence of any Significant Events, as described below.
 - i. failure to pay any real property taxes (including Special Taxes) levied within the district on a parcel owned by the developer, or any affiliate thereof;
 - ii. material damage to or destruction of any development or improvements within the district;
 - iii. material default by the developer, or any affiliate thereof, on any loan with respect to the construction or permanent financing of the district development;
 - iv. material default by the developer, or any affiliate thereof, on any loan secured by property within the district owned by the developer, or any affiliate of the developer;
 - v. the filing of the developer, or any affiliate thereof, or any owners of more than 25% interest in the developer in bankruptcy or any determination that the developer, or owner of interest in the developer, or a subsidiary of the developer, or any affiliate thereof, is unable to pay its debts as they become due; and
 - vi. the filing of any lawsuit against the developer with claim for damages in excess of $1,000,000 or which may materially adversely affect the completion of the district development, or litigation in excess of $1,000,000 or which would materially adversely affect the financial condition of the developer.
